

Shaun Larsen is the Chief Financial Officer of Flight & Ambulance Services, Telehealth, and Outreach at Intermountain Health. In this role, he oversees financial operations across base locations in seven states and manages strategic planning for a fleet of more than 60 aircraft. With over nine years at Intermountain Health, he brings expertise in budgeting, forecasting, capital planning, debt management, mergers & acquisitions, and revenue cycle management.

He also serves on the Board of Directors for Classic Air Care LLC, a subsidiary of Intermountain Health. A Certified Public Accountant, Shaun holds both a bachelor's and master's degree in accounting from Weber State University. He is an active member of the Utah Association of CPAs (UACPA), the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), and the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA).

Outside of work, Shaun is passionate about soccer—having played throughout his life, he continues competing in men's leagues today. Both of his sons (ages 22 and 19) also grew up playing the sport, making it a central part of family life. He enjoys golf, traveling, and spending time with his wife of 21 years and their sons. A beach enthusiast, he also loves surfing whenever the opportunity arises.
